AFMAN 23-110, Volume II, Part Two, Chapter 11, is supplemented as follows: This supplement provides instructions regarding the issuing of assets from the Logistics Readiness Squadron. This supplement applies to all units attached to McChord AFB, including Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve units.

SUMMARY OF REVISIONS

Changed all references to new Logistics Readiness Squadron. Changed office symbols to reflect new 62 LRS office symbols. Added new procedures for obtaining Hazardous items. Deleted 11.8.6 All Customer Service and FDSE personnel receiving issue requests may question those that appear to contain an inflated UJC/UND. A bar (|) indicates a revision from the previous edition.

11.3.1. When activities require supplies, they will submit requests to Aircraft Parts Store (62 LRS/LGRMA). Spreadsheets will not be used. All hazardous material requests will be made to the Lighthouse for the Blind's operated McChord Express Store. Equipment Liaison Office (62 LRS/LGRSC) will be the contact point for equipment issues.

11.3.2.2. Submit requests for non-EAID, non-mobility items to the Aircraft Parts Store.

11.4.1.2. The Logistics Readiness Squadron Commander has elected not to record/report delivery times for expedite issue documents.

11.4.1.2.1. Finalized Copy 1 of AF Form 2005, Issue/Turn-In Request with management notice or transaction history attached, will replace Copy 2 of AF Form 2005, which will then be destroyed. APS will file Copy 1 of AF Form 2005, in Julian date and serial number sequence, for 30 days.

11.5.1. Quick Reference Listing is utilized at McChord AFB.

11.7.6. Aircraft Parts Store will process all activity code U/W requests for the 62 LRS after hours.

11.11.2.4. Sending the I004 management notice to the using organization is not required unless requested by the organization.

11.13.1.3.1. During inventory, urgency of need B may be issued.

11.14.1. The Fuels Management Flight is the point of contact for processing all LOX/LIN issues.

11.30. Issue of Serious Health Hazard Items (IEX9) COS Option. The issue of hazardous items (IEX 8,9,M) is managed and controlled by the Lighthouse for the Blind. All requests for these items must be processed through them.
